Charges and Remissions Policy

The aim of this policy is to set out what charges will be levied for activities in Staffordshire University Academies Trust (SUAT) academies, external lettings and extended school provision, what remissions will be implemented and the circumstances under which voluntary contributions will be requested from parents. Guidance is based on the Education Act 1996: Sections 449-462.

Responsibilities

The Trust Board of the SUAT are responsible for determining the content of the policy and the, COO and Principals for implementation. Any determinations with respect to individual parents will be considered by the Principal of the individual academy.

Each individual academy is responsible for following the SUAT process for setting up new lettings. A SUAT letting application, agreement and risk assessments must be completed by the hirer before the letting commences.

Hirers must agree to follow the SUAT Lettings Conditions of Use (available at www.suatrust.co.uk) and are required to provide a copy of their public liability insurance prior to the commencement of the letting.

Definitions

Community Facilities

Activities which the Board do not feel is of direct educational benefit to children at the SUAT academies.

Extended school provision

Provision of childcare outside the standard school day where it is optional as to whether the child attends.

External Lettings

Letting to an organisation other than the SUAT academies.

Remission

Where a charge is not payable, either in full or in part.

Sinking Fund

A reserve put aside, by the MAT on behalf of individual academies, over a number of years to pay for major maintenance or renewal costs.

Prohibition of Charges

The Board of Directors of SUAT recognise that the legislation prohibits charges for the following:

- education provided during school hours (including the supply of any materials, books, instruments or other equipment)
- education provided outside school hours if it is part of the National Curriculum, or part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the academies, or part of religious education
